

Collective Worship planning includes British Values teaching linked to our RE Knowledge Organisers, including other faiths.

Regular assemblies on what the Bible says about each British Value in turn.

Democracy taught throughout the curriculum – recurring concept in History and English.

Year 6 job responsibilities.

Equality and Inclusion policy Dec 22

British Values statement published on website.

Tolerance of others addressed during anti-bullying week work.

British Values actively taught in RE and PSHE lessons and evidenced in books.

Annual Remembrance service in church.

What do British Values look like at St. Michael & All Angels?

Christian values through everything we do.

E-safety newsletter shared with stakeholders.

Rule of Law taught through PSHE lessons, visits and school rules.

Uniqueness celebrated in all areas of school life.

Links to local community including church governors, residential home and supporting food bank.

School reading books chosen with British Values in mind.

Children have a voice at 'house' meetings.

Respect referenced through active teaching of school rules, assemblies and modelled by staff and through the school ethos.

RE a strength of the school, celebrating various religious festivals.

Church representation on the school governing board.

Display board in school hall updated weekly in relation to our British Values learning focus.