

Books made available to read in classrooms and books taught in English chosen in order to actively promote PSHE.

Weekly collective worship reflection day board includes development of the whole person – led by Year 6 children.

All year groups follow the PSHE Association programme of study.

Weekly PSHE focuses discussed in Collective Worship assemblies, developed throughout the week.

Regular personal development opportunities through trips, clubs, school ethos and special school days.

Weekly achievement assembly to celebrate and recognise development of whole self.

KS2 children's leadership of assemblies offering PSHE development, ownership and independence.

Regular parent newsletter communicating PSHE happenings, development and opportunities.

What does PSHE look like at St. Michael & All Angels?

Links between British Values and the development of personal, social and health characteristics through everything we do.

PSHE framework teaching included within Individual Education Plan targets, provision and support.

PSHE taught with Christian values running through everything we do.

Mental health and wellbeing support through visits from therapy dog.

Annual parent questionnaires to evaluate PSHE provision and inform future planning of PSHE.

'Show and tell' sessions to allow children ownership and development of personal skills and qualities.

Upper KS2 job responsibilities given to children to model and develop personal, social and health education.

Uniqueness celebrated and encouraged and resources used throughout the school which promote and enable inclusivity.